

ARTICLE V—MEETINGS.

The annual meetings shall be held on the Friday following Thanksgiving Day, at such place as the Executive Committee shall determine. Special meetings may be held at such times and places as the Executive Committee shall determine.

ARTICLE VI—DUES.

The annual dues of the active members shall be $3.00 and of associate members $2.00, which shall entitle them to receive the Transactions and other publications of the Academy. Honorary members shall not be required to pay dues, but any honorary member desiring to receive the publications of the Academy shall pay $2.00 per annum.

ARTICLE VII—AMENDMENTS.

This constitution may be altered or amended at any annual meeting by a three-fourths majority of the members attending, due notice of such change having been given fifteen days in advance.

By-Laws

1. On motion, any special department of science shall be assigned to a curator, whose duty it shall be, with the assistance of the other members interested in the same department, to endeavor to advance knowledge in that particular department. Each curator shall report at such time and place as the Academy shall direct. These reports shall include a brief summary of the progress of the department during the year preceding the presentation of the report.

2. The retiring President shall deliver a public address on the Friday evening of the annual meeting.

3. The Editor shall attend to the securing of proper newspaper reports of the meetings, assist the Secretary and edit all publications of the Academy.

4. No meeting of the Academy shall be held without a notice of the same having been sent to the address of each member at least fifteen days before such meeting.

5. No bill against the Academy shall be paid without an order signed by the President and countersigned by the Secretary.

6. Members who shall allow their dues to remain unpaid for two years, having been annually notified of their arrearages by the Treasurer, shall have their names stricken from the roll.

7. Twelve members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.
