Turtox Moves to New Laboratories

On January first we moved into our new Turtox plant in the southwest section of Chicago. In this modern office and laboratory building we have greatly increased office space, the finest biological laboratories, ample and uncrowded areas for stock and for the assembly of orders, and very efficient shipping facilities. All of these factors will help us to render better and faster service to the users of Turtox Products. Please visit us when you are in Chicago — our new site includes parking space for many cars.
