1973 ANNUAL MEETING FOR TAS NOV 16 & 17

The Annual Meeting for the Tennessee Academy of Science will be held November 16 and 17 at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee. Make plans to attend and bring a new member to show your support for the Academy.

NSF ANNOUNCES EDUCATION SUPPORT FOR 1974

The National Science Foundation has announced a summary of its support for education programs to be funded during fiscal year 1974 in a recent brochure with the code number E-74-1. The brochure does not contain guidelines for submission of proposals to all the programs but does contain policy statements, proposal closing dates, Grant Award dates, and pertinent publications for each of its several programs. The brochure can be obtained by writing the following address and asking for a copy of E-74-1:

A NEW PRESIDENT FOR PEABODY COLLEGE

Dr. John Dunworth, 49, Dean of the Teachers College at Ball State University has been named to succeed Dr. John M. Claunch, effective Jan. 1, 1974, as President of George Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Tennessee. Dr. Claunch, 67, who celebrated his sixth anniversary as Peabody President August 1, 1973, will retire June 1, 1974, following a sabbatical leave beginning Jan. 1, 1974. Dr. Dunworth, in his position as Dean at Ball State, was responsible for the administration of the Teacher's College which served 10,000 students in teacher education from undergraduate through doctoral level programs. Dr. Dunworth, who had been Dean at Ball State since 1966, holds the Doctor of Education degree in educational administration and supervision from the University of Southern California.
